

Joseph Hickman Cook 1929-1978

Newspaper in Brigham City, UT

Joseph Hickman Cook

Joseph Hickman Cook, 49, 725 East Fourth North, died Nov. 17 at McKay-Dee hospital in Ogden.

He was born Mar. 10, 1929, in Atlantic City, N.J. the son of Frank and May Hickman Cook.

He married Betty Marie Buckless on Feb. 9, 1952, in Rapid City, S.D.

He was retired from Civil Service as quality control representative for the U.S. Government at Thiokol Chemical Corporatin.

He had lived in Brigham City since 1968.

He was a member of the Brigham City Holy Cross Lutheran church and served in WWII.

He is survived by his wife, Brigham City; four sons; Joe L. Cook, Eau Claire, Wis; Fran J. Cook, Ogden; Kenny Cook, Cedar City; and Edward R. Cook, Pocatello, Id.; four grandchildren; and his father,

Joseph H. Cook

Brigham City.

Memorial funeral services are scheduled Sunday (today) at 3 p.m. at the Brigham Holy Cross Luthern Church.

Burial and additional services to be held Tuesday at Gordon, Neb.

Newspaper in
Martin, SD

MARTIN PAPER

Nov. 30, 1978

Obituary of Joe H. Cook

Joseph Hickman Cook, 49, of 725 East 4th North St., Brigham City, Utah, died Friday, November 17, at Ogden, Utah. He was born March 10, 1929, in Atlantic City, N. J., a son of Frank and May Cook.

He was united in marriage with Betty Marie Buckles of Merriman, Nebr., February 9, 1952, in Rapid City.

He was retired from Civil Service as quality control representative for the U. S. Government. He had lived in Brigham City since 1968 but was once a resident of Merriman, Nebr.

He was a veteran of World War II.

He is survived by his wife, Betty, Brigham City; four sons, Joseph L. Eau Claire, Wisc., Frank James, Ogden, Utah, Kenny W., Cedar City, Utah, and Edward R., Pocatello, Ida., two daughters-in-law; four grandchildren; and his father, Frank of Brigham City.

He was preceded in death by his mother and two grandchildren.

Memorial services were held in Brigham City, Utah, Sunday, November 19. Funeral services and burial were conducted at Gordon, Nebr., November 21. Pall bearers were Bob Buckles, Merriman, Leigh Dahlgren and Jim McBeth, both of Gordon, Nebr., and Gerald Ames, Virgil Bradfield and Calvin Neiss, all of Rapid City.

A memorial fund has been established at the Anchor Bank in Merriman, Nebr.